

society for organizational learning
NORTH AMERICA

June 2-4, 2015 Ashland, MA, USA

LEADING SUSTAINABLE TRANSFORMATION

Develop your capacity to lead systemic change. Gain the skills to develop partnerships and collaboration throughout your organization, supply chain and community, using the lens of sustainability. The skills you gain at this hands-on workshop will be applicable to all complex problems of systemic change.

Facilitated by Peter Senge and Darcy Winslow

Who Should Attend

- ✓ Business and functional leaders, managers, directors and influencers...not just people with 'sustainability' or 'corporate social responsibility' titles.
- ✓ People who want to build their leadership capacity to lead change efforts, from wherever they sit within their organization.
- ✓ Leaders who feel a personal commitment to building more sustainable organizations, value chains, industries and communities.
- ✓ Teams from all sectors who are working on sustainability initiatives in their organizations.

What You Will Learn

- ✓ Strengthen your systems thinking skills so you can shift from reactive problem solving to initiating and creating new futures.
- ✓ Learn how to create work cultures of openness and inquiry.
- ✓ Gain exposure to effective integration tools and frameworks to address real issues.
- ✓ Work with and learn from a diverse group of peers who share your passion for supporting sustainable business systems.
- ✓ Sketch a sustainability plan for your organization.

For more information or to register please visit www.SOLonline.org

Founded in 1997, SoL, the Society for Organizational Learning, is an intentional learning community composed of organizations, individuals, and local SoL communities around the world. Learn more and register online at solonline.org.